Mrs. Alice Robinson
Evansville, Nov. 11.—At an early hour yesterday morning, a message was received telling of the death of Mrs. Alice Robinson, widow of the late Emerson Robinson, at her home in Downey, California, on Saturday, November 10. No particulars were given as to the cause of her death. The remains were to be sent to Evansville for burial this morning via the Southern Pacific railroad, and will probably arrive here some time in the latter part of the week, and will be laid to rest on the family lot in Maple Hill cemetery.

Alice Robinson was for many years a resident of Evansville, having left here to make California her home some years ago. She was in her sixty-seventh year along life's journey. Her husband preceded her to the world beyond a number of years ago. She is survived by one son, Roy Robinson of Downey, California, and several brothers and sisters residing in the western states. There are many who will be grieved to learn of her death.

Celebrating Today
Great excitement is prevailing here today over the cessation of the great world war. Since three-thirty this morning the celebration has been in progress. Shops are closed and huge bonfires are burning, and the whole population is celebrating. True, a great demonstration was pulled off last Friday, but that was merely a practice for the full-fledged jubilee today. Red Cross Xmas Cartoon Instructions
Due to an error it has been stated that the local postoffice, received instructions that relatives would be allowed to be fitted with Christmas cheer and sent to their soldier boys "over there," whether they had received a letter or not. That ruling applied only to Red Cross soldiers and American boys serving with the armies of the Allies. However, a request has been sent to Red Cross headquarters asking if the ruling may not apply to all American soldiers across, and when word is received, it will be published. Evansville vicinity has about seventy boys with the American Expeditionary force on foreign battlefields, and last week, but six letters had been received, allowing relatives the privilege of sending Christmas packages.

Personal
The many friends of Miss Amanda Needles, who for a number of months was located here as a trained nurse, will be glad to learn that she is located in a hospital center about seventy-five miles south of Paris, where most of her patients are American boys. She is enjoying her work highly. Her address is Miss Amanda Needles, A. N. C. U. S. Army Hospital No. 60, A. E. F., A. P. O. No. 728.

The Women's Missionary Society of the Congregational church will hold their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. C. Holmes on South First street, Friday of this week. Attention O. B. S.

Regular meeting of the O. B. S. will be held in Masonic hall at 7:30 o'clock, this evening. Members are requested to be present.

Evansville, Nov. 12.—Monday. November 11th, 1918, will go down in history as one of the greatest days in American annals and will never be forgotten by young or old. As soon as word was received that Germany had surrendered, word was dashed all over our country and on receipt of the news every hamlet, town and city in this broad land of ours began to celebrate. No preparation was necessary, for everyone was in the mood to rejoice and rejoice to the utmost. For more than a year and a half, the nervous tension, the strain experienced by our people has been fearful, for the grim shadow of war has been spread throughout the land and its sinister effect felt by all. When this was lifted and it was felt that peace had been restored, enthusiasm knew no bounds. Peoples went wild with joy. So it was in Evansville, from the time the word was received until late last evening, the celebration was in full swing, demonstrating that this was the genuine article—the celebration of last Thursday merely the rehearsal.

Personal.
Rev. Milo B. Goodall has been appointed missionary for the Northern Chain of Missions, and will make his headquarters at Rice Lake. He has been priest in charge of St. John's Episcopal church for the past year, and preached his farewell sermon on Sunday last.

E. J. Sheffield has returned from a business trip to Buffalo, Albany, Boston, New York and Philadelphia, in the interests of the D. E. Wood Butter company. Forrest Durner has resigned his position as an agent for the American Express company, and accepted a position with the D. E. Wood Butter company, as assistant bookkeeper. Clarence W. Hubbard of Chicago is the guest of Evansville relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Johnson of Belmont spent Monday in Evansville.

GOVERNOR'S WIFE QUITS MUNITION PLANT TO AID VICTIMS OF INFLUENZA EPIDEMIC

Mrs. Westmoreland Davis, wife of the governor of Virginia, at bedside of influenza victim.

Mrs. Westmoreland Davis, wife of the governor of Virginia, is setting an example in patriotic service for her sisters in the state to follow. Until recently Mrs. Davis had been working regularly in the powder department of a munition plant, going from the executive mansion to her bench every day. When the influenza epidemic broke out and the need for nurses became acute, Mrs. Davis felt she could better aid her country in fighting the "flu" and became a nurse at the John Marshall high school emergency hospital. She is shown above at work. She is wearing a mask to protect herself from the disease germs.

Edgerton News

Edgerton, Nov. 11.—The greatest day in the history was celebrated in the city yesterday in a most fitting manner. Shortly after dinner a parade was formed at the city hall and without delay was the biggest parade ever held in the city.

The parade was headed by the band. Next in line was Colonel Russell bearing the colors. He was followed by the service flag, Mr. R. C. city fathers, first department, mothers of the soldiers, school children, autos and floats. After the parade a program was held from the band stand at the bank corner. Mayor Leary presided and introduced the speakers. Rev. Harlin was the first speaker and was followed by Atty. Fred Bentley of Chicago. F. O. Holt and City Atty. Blanchard also gave stirring addresses. H. M. Raymond led the community singing. After all it was the greatest celebration ever held in the city and one that will be long remembered.

M. B. Fletcher died at his home on Sunday afternoon at five o'clock. In the death of Mr. Fletcher, Edgerton loses one of its pioneer business men, one having been in business in the city for thirty years past. Mr. Fletcher was possessed of a kind and loving disposition. He was a man who never faltered at doing in his judgment what he thought was right. His entire life was like an open book and would always bear the closest inspection. Mills B. Fletcher was born in Berea, Ohio, Feb. 21, 1846. When a small boy he came with his parents to Wisconsin and settled at Milton, later moving to Greenbush, Wis. For a number of years Mr. Fletcher was employed by the Eclipse Windmill Co. of Beloit and traveled through the south where in Montgomery, Ala., he became acquainted with Lizzie Markham and on Oct. 7, 1888 they were married. For the next two years he made Chicago his home then coming to Edgerton, where he has resided since. He leaves to mourn him, his wife, one sister, Mrs. O. A. O'Neill of Glenview, Wis., and several nieces and nephews. Funeral services will be held from the home Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 and from the Methodist church at 2 P. M.

Mrs. Victor Hauge of Rockford, Ill., was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. Hauge.

Knobloch of Montana spent a portion of the week at the home of his sister Mrs. F. P. Burg.

Earl Braundrick of the Great Lakes training station was a week end visitor.

Word comes to Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Plagg that their son John who is in France with Company M was wounded Oct. 17th.

Amid the shrieks and whistles and pounding of drums, Edgerton awoke Monday morning to receive the glad tidings that the armistice had been signed. At 2:45 a. m. a Gazette bulletin was posted and people were awakened and the good news told to them. At six o'clock, the five o'clock extra of the Gazette arrived in the city, confirming the news of the signing of the armistice. The news from the Gazette was the first to arrive in the city and no other papers arrived until the eight o'clock train from the east. Business in the city was suspended for the day and every one was out celebrating.

Money for lonesome labels to the amount of $150.00 was collected in the city Saturday. The money will be devoted to the purchase of Christmas boxes for soldiers overseas who do not receive any Christmas packages from home. The sum of Two dollars is required for each box which will be bought and sent overseas by the National Red Cross. People were most liberal with their donations.

M. B. Fletcher died at his home last evening. He has been in failing health for some time past. An appropriate obituary and funeral announcement will appear in these columns later.

Mr. and Mrs. H. McChesney of Chicago were Sunday visitors at the home of the former's parents, Dr. and Mrs. McChesney.

The remains of the late Albert Robinson of Topeka, Kansas arrived in the city Monday for burial. Mr. Robinson was at one time a resident of this city and for many years was president of the Santa Fe Railroad.

Verna Tull is enjoying a vacation from her duties at the Tobacco Exchange Bank and will spend a week at the home of Chicago friends.

Lewis Roscoe of Two Rivers, Wis., is visiting at the home of relatives in the city.

WESTERN SHIPYARDS ESTABLISH A RECORD

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

San Francisco, Nov. 12.—From the shipyards of the Pacific coast a vessel a day, newly completed and broken the demands of war, sets forth as a cargo carrier in the American emergency fleet.

Shipbuilding activities extend from San Pedro in California to the northernmost limits of the State of Washington. Hulls of steel and wood, and come of concrete, many of them turned out in periods which have broken world's speed records, are erected at these plants, and somewhere along this stretch of shore line, virtually every twenty-four hours, a ship takes the water and the keel of another is laid before the wavelets from the launching have disappeared.

Because the Pacific yards from the inauguration of the national shipbuilding project have led the country in production, their managers were first to predict that the industry would be the greatest since history has been recorded. They are in position now to speak with authority of the fulfillment of their prophecies. L. E. Meachem, secretary of the Meachem and Babcock Shipbuilding Company of Seattle, said:

"There were employed in the construction of King Solomon's temple, according to the Bible, 152,300 men. That was the greatest construction undertaking up to modern times. War shipbuilding is the world's greatest industry, because there are more men concentrated on a single purpose than in any other industry."

Probably no one could state exactly the number of men employed in the various departments of shipbuilding on the Pacific coast. It is a constantly changing and a constantly increasing quantity. For instance, on July 1, 1916, 4,200 men were at work in the Oregon yards. Just one year later there were 15,500 engaged in the task.

VERNIE BICKLE IS IN FRENCH HOSPITAL

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Bickle have received a letter from their son Vernie Bickle, dated October 18, in which he says he has been gassed and is in the hospital. He says it will not be long before he will be well again and he expects the war will be over soon and he will be home. He says that he met Frank Murphy in the hospital. He had been gassed but was getting well again. Vernie was twenty-one at the time he enlisted in Company M. He is now a member of Company C. 25th Regiment.

DAILY PRAYER.

Some of our boys who heard these calls, O Captain of our cause, have fallen while fighting for Thee. Take to Thyself those whose warfare on earth is finished; console and heal the wounded; stay the hearts of all who are bereaved, and in a new glow of common suffering may we find the best that is in one another and in Thee. Amen.

ARMISTICE MEANS PEACE.

An armistice means peace, on all historical records and beyond question it becomes a certainty when the desperate condition of Germany is realized. There is small doubt that any conditions would be accepted, and there is an almost illogical consistency in the German mind that it still leaves its opponents will play fair even when it is prepared to cheat on any opportunity.

An armistice means peace, and it also means the reconstruction, the rehabilitation of Germany and the education of the German people. They are yet to learn the appalling depths to which they have descended. But if the world is to exact, as it unquestionably will, enormous indemnities, which can never be large enough to meet the destruction of a nation, Germany has caused it must still leave Germany the tools with which to create the new wealth to pay those indemnities.

When we sentence a convict to hard labor, we give him the means for production. We do not expect him to make bricks without straw. The civilized world, indeed, will take over the responsibility of this dreadful role of the Dark Ages, this monster of greed, rapine, and arrogance, and show him how to make a man of himself. An armistice means peace, but peace itself comes later. Recognizing that individual and national punishment of the most severe character is necessary, it is yet the task of civilization to give sixty millions of people from themselves.

Every citizen should take an active part in civic movements. The fact that the city has returned under the control of the government should be an incentive for every citizen interested in the welfare of the community they live in to be present at every session. Matters of importance are threshed out and the support of citizens interested in this or that project should bear weight with the actual deliberations of the members elected by the people and of the people and for the people's government. Alderman J. F. Telford strongly opposed the old time session of the city council. The old council six years ago and has so expressed himself in the formation of the present council. This gives the citizen with interests at stake an opportunity to be heard and to listen to a deliberation when they see fit. The few months will be of interest to the citizens generally in formulating plans for our increased population that is bound to come so let all interested look to the council for judgment and judgment on important matters.

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING.

O Almighty God, the Sovereign Commander of all the World, in whose hand is power and might, which none is able to withstand. We bless and magnify thy great and glorious name for this happy Victory, the whole glory whereof we do ascribe to Thee, who art the only giver of victory. And we beseech thee give us grace to improve this great mercy to thy glory, the advancement of thy Gospel, the honor of our Country, and as much as in us lieth, to the good of all mankind. And we beseech thee, give us a sense of this great mercy, as may engage us to a true thankfulness, such as may appear in our lives by a humble, holy and obedient walking before thee all our days; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with thee, Father, Holy Spirit, as for all thy mercies, so in particular forth is Victory and Deliverance, be all glory and honor, world without end. Amen.

This prayer opened the great demonstration of Monday in the Court House Park.

THE COUNTY SANITARIUM.

There is nothing that Rock county can do that is more essential at the present time than make an appropriation for a county tuberculosis sanitarium. As has been suggested it might be made a memorial building for the Rock county soldiers who lose their lives in the great struggle of ages, but more so it might save hundreds of lives in the immediate future by giving those in the incipient form of the disease, rest, nourishment and suitable treatment in quarters designed for their special convenience and treatment. The thought is a good one and the county board when it meets this week will decide how much they will appropriate for the construction. Let it be a liberal sum and remember that we are looking to the future, not today.

The large number of people who persist in putting their bonds in coupon form and keeping them in their houses, are often the same ones who wouldn't take the bother to put a little want ad in the paper.

The reason why some men haven't

One suspects that those three American girls that are trying 10,000 doughnuts a day over in France for our boys, will not long remain in single blessedness.

After claiming they have established a popular government in Germany, the revolutionists proceeded to set up machine guns in the streets of his cities.

The principal trouble with the German war machine was that the only thing it did to get ready to meet the Americans was to laugh at them.

AMONG THE MISSING.

What happened no one seems to know.

None lives today, tell his story.

Alone for truth, he struck a blow.

Alone, he lost both life and glory.

Somewhere in Freedom's holy cause

He bravely stood where shells were hissing.

With neither help nor friend's applause,

And now his name's "among the missing."

Alone, he served his country's need—

Kept faith with God and fellow men.

There is no tongue to tell his deed;

His name is lost to voice and pen.

Yet this we know: what'er the test,

True valor by a man is shown

And he is always at his best

When he must fight for truth alone.

"Among the missing!" Who can guess

The splendors that are lost to fame,

The courage and the manliness

That death and dark oblivion claim?

Far from his friends, in danger's hour,

This missing soldier made his fight

And to the fullest of his power

Stood single-handed for the right.

I like to think, in distant days,

When all the deeds of men are known,

The first to hear the Master's praise

Will be the men who fought alone.

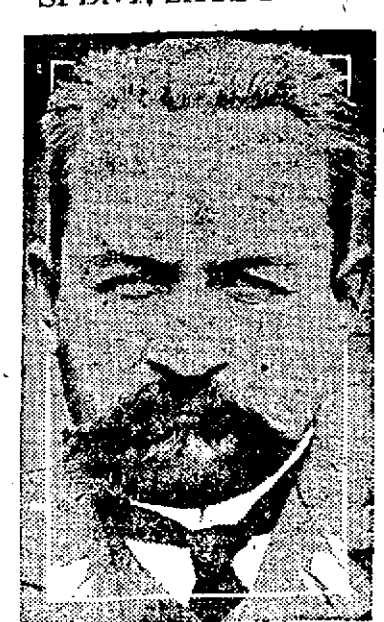

Those that in danger's hour were true,

Died nobly, yet by fame were missed.

And kept the faith, though lost to view,

Will lead eternal glory's list.

Prince Lvoff is in the U. S. to convince America and President Wilson that Russia's revolutions have about spent themselves and that the people of that nation are ready to conform to the ideals and aims which prompted the first provisional government, of which he was made premier. He is a Slav and is filled with the Slav's desire for democracy and freedom.

but we still have to be the big brother to the stricken countries of Europe and will have to feed and clothe them for years to come. The greater food and clothing will have to come from our great farms of the Middle West. The owners of these farms will have to borrow a great deal of money to finance their increased farming operations. For over 26 years we have furnished investors with Farm Mortgages secured on these fine farms. Investors have found them to be entirely satisfactory and excellent securities, so much so that the call is greater than we are able sometimes to meet. We expect to be able to increase our supply of mortgages in order to fill the demand. These mortgages are going to be better than ever, because high prices of produce will increase the value of the farms mortgaged and make the security more valuable.

LARGEST PARADE IN CITY'S HISTORY STAGED ON MONDAY

THOUSANDS MARCHED IN VICTORY PARADE YESTERDAY AFTERNOON.

PROGRAM AT PARK

Court House Park Was Scene of Greatest Public Meeting Ever Held in City. Several Splendid Addresses.

At exactly two o'clock yesterday afternoon the greatest parade that Janesville ever witnessed started. The parade started exactly on schedule time and moved with exact precision. There was no confusion and each society and organization represented was in their assigned place fully ten minutes before Charles Putnam, marshal of the day, ordered the "long line" to commence their march.

Never before in the history of Janesville and probably never again will the citizens witness such a spectacle. The parade was nearly two miles long and without a doubt was the greatest ever staged in Janesville. There have been many monster parades here during the past two years but the march of yesterday was paramount in all.

Every society, organization and industrial plant in the city was represented in the parade. Never before have the women of Janesville turned out in such numbers as they did yesterday. Hundreds of women who had never been in a parade before were on hand early to participate and lend their zeal to the occasion.

Headed by C. S. Putnam, marshal of the day, the parade started from the corner of Academy and West Milwaukee streets and proceeded east to Main street and south on Main to the Court House Park.

There were signs bearing every inscription conceivable to the human mind reminding the people that the war was over and that the Kaiser had met his Waterloo. Signs bearing the inscription "TO HELL WITH THE KAISER" were most prominent.

The Red Cross organization brought forth much applause as they marched through the streets. George Cassidy and Leo Nolan with the Kaiser's gun came a close second in the parade. The Janesville Magazine Company bearing the mascot of "William the Murderer" also made a good hit. Many scenes equally as good kept the crowd cheering during the entire march.

The largest crowd that ever assembled in this city to attend any kind of a meeting was on hand at the Court House park when the program was started. Every inch of ground in the lower section of the park was crowded. It was a joyous crowd that awaited the opening of the program.

M. G. Jeffris, chairman of the meeting, gave a short introductory address and then turned the program over to the speaker of the day, J. A. Craig, who gave a splendid and timely address. Mr. Craig was never better and his talk was received with cheers from the assemblage.

Mayor Charles Valentine spoke a few words of cheer to the crowd. He was followed by W. H. Dougherty who gave a splendid address on the winning of the war. J. M. Whitehead was the next speaker and his address was not only interesting but very instructive and was well received by the crowd. A few words to the crowd expressing his opinion of the Kaiser and his six sons.

J. Page of Elkhorst was the next speaker and for fifteen minutes he kept the crowd in a continual uproar by his witty sayings and his stories. Dean R. E. Kelly was the last speaker on the program and his address was splendid and to the point. He told of the many atrocities committed by the Germans during the four years of war and also spoke of the great work accomplished by the American soldiers in Europe.

It was an ideal way to celebrate the end of the war and the defeat of the German War Lords. It was ample proof of the great appreciation of the residents of Janesville to the American soldiers who fought and died so gallantly that Democracy might live.

NO ACCIDENTS TO MAR CELEBRATION

Police Department Had One of the Quietest Days in Its History. Not An Arrest Was Made.

Despite the fact that the city of Janesville entertained more visitors yesterday than it ever did before the police department experienced one of the quietest days in its history. Early in the morning Chief of Police Peter D. Champion issued orders to his men to be especially watchful for thieves operating in the crowds, but not to interfere with the celebration of the people unless they were damaging property or human lives.

With the streets crowded as they never had been crowded before and with every police officer on duty, the city was well protected and not a single accident or theft was reported to the police office.

Not an arrest was made by the officers during the entire celebration. One man from La Crosse was brought into the station about eight o'clock yesterday morning after he had been found on the street. A doctor was called but by the time the doctor arrived the man had recovered and was ready to resume celebrating.

A close watch was kept on incoming trains to watch for the influx of pickpockets and other thieves from the larger cities, but not one was sighted by the police.

A close watch was pushed from a land car on West Milwaukee street about six o'clock yesterday morning and knocked unconscious. He was carried into Wilbur's store and recovered shortly. He suffered no ill effects from the fall.

CITY OBSERVES WAR VICTORY JOYOUSLY FOR SEVERAL HOURS

CELEBRATION WHICH STARTED AT TWO O'CLOCK MONDAY MORNING CONTINUED UNTIL EARLY TUESDAY MORNING

BURNED IN EFFIGY

Emperor Wilhelm Burned Drowned! Electrocuted! And Hung! In Effigy By Mad Crowd. No Accidents Reported

Janesville citizens went wild, simply wild, over the news of the armistice signing yesterday morning and for two o'clock Monday morning until late Monday evening the streets of the downtown section were jammed with merry makers.

Women and men, young and old, participated in the celebration and never before in the history of the city of Janesville were such scenes enacted. Every noise making device obtainable from the dishpan to the base drum was in evidence on the downtown streets.

Kaiser Wilhelm was burned, hung, electrocuted and drowned in effigy. Bon fires were started in the morning on the downtown corners and for several hours the people participated in the burning of the Kaiser. Again late evening fires were started and it was at this time that Bill the Baby Killer was burned in effigy. He was burned in effigy on the corner of Milwaukee and Franklin streets, but was needed for another fire and was taken down and hung at the end of the Milwaukee street bridge and drowned and he was electrocuted on Academy street.

Tuesday, November 11, will go down in the annals of the history of Janesville as the greatest day ever had in this city. There were no slackers in the city yesterday. Everyone celebrated. Elderly women danced on the street and young men marched through the business section beating pots and blowing horns.

The latest thing in automobile trailers yesterday was tin cans. Nearly every car on the street had a tin can on the rear. The people couldn't make enough noise. Everything possible was tried that would make noise, but the puns and drums were paramount.

Said old citizens who have not participated in celebrations of any kind for many years were on the streets singing and shouting. Women who never danced before in their lives were dancing and shouting madly around the bon fires.

Last evening the madly riotous scene was at its height. It was impossible to walk on the sidewalks. Every corner was crowded and the people were dancing and singing around the fires. The only interruption was when the fire department responded to alarms, and there were many.

Janesville went mad. Nothing could stop the merry makers. No one got rough, there were no accidents and everyone celebrated the same spirit. They were celebrating the end of the war and the victory of American soldiers.

Here and there a mother or wife or sweetheart could be seen with dimmed eyes. They too were celebrating and the tears were tears of joy. The end of the war meant much to them. It meant the return of a son, father, brother or sweetheart.

It would have been a great punishment for the Kaiser, had he been able to witness the wild scenes in this city yesterday. He would have been a person subject to ridicule as the Kaiser was yesterday. His effigy on the street, was the signal for a cremation or hanging.

"TO HELL WITH THE KAISER" was the paramount saying of the day. Wilhelm was defeated and the people were celebrating his defeat with every ounce of power they possessed.

As the hours grew late, the merry makers started for their homes, but by no means were the streets deserted. Here and there a group of celebrators were in evidence until the night fires were kept burning until the break of dawn this morning.

Janesville welcomed the news of the end of the war, with as much zeal as any city in the United States and the next celebration probably will be staged when those gallant boys return from the battle front to take their places by their wives and families.

Written on the spur of the moment by Pat Daley of Chicago, the poem follows:

"TAG" YOUR "IT."
(By Pat Daley of Chicago.)

Everything goes today
Even the Kaiser,
He's gone the Holland way,
Sadder and wiser.

Good natured jamboree
Of noise and bustle,
List to the harmony,
Tin can and whistle!

Out of this noise melee
Hear her horn tootin',
Grandma's out on a spree,
'Hoolin' an' tootin'.

Granddad is feeling fine,
Noisy and mellow,
Two grandsons watch the Rhine,
Dare call him yellow!

This is a day of glee,
Plucked from Eternity,
Kaiser deposed is he,
Sing, cheer and shout!

Down in the briny deep,
U-Boats in pickle steep,
Devil-fish vigil keep,
Day in, day out.

Fallen autocracy
Crushed aristocracy,
Safe for Democracy,
What a great story!

Go to it boys and men,
Join in the noise women,
Naughty and good children,
Shout for Old Glory.

This is the Day of Days!
(Der Tag, is that the phrase?)
No more homes, churches raze,
Never again.

O'er the Rhine come again
Child murdering Huns again,
World without end, Amen.

A reception and shower was given Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Ryan of Footville to welcome them home on their return from a trip in the northern part of the state. There were about one hundred relatives and friends in attendance, and the young couple were the recipients of a great many useful and beautiful gifts. A delicious supper was served and a delightful evening was spent by all. The guests departed, wishing the young couple every happiness.

JOE CHAPPLE SPEAKER AT TWILIGHT CLUB

Editor of National Magazine Will Be Speaker at First Meeting of Twilight Club at Y. M. C. A. This Evening.

Joe Mitchell Chapple, editor of the National Magazine at Boston, Mass., will address the opening meeting of the Twilight club at the Y. M. C. A. this evening. Mr. Chapple will use as his subject "Battlefield Experiences."

George S. Parker received word this morning that Mr. Chapple would be on hand for the meeting and would arrive in the city late this afternoon. The speaker has spent several months on the battle fields of Europe and his address this evening should prove to be very interesting as well as instructive.

Due to the epidemic of Spanish influenza the opening of the Twilight club had to be postponed one month. The meeting this evening marks the beginning of the twenty-third year of the organization.

Supper will be served promptly at six o'clock and it is thought that the program will start shortly after seven o'clock. All members are urged to be prompt in attendance.

It was announced this afternoon that the ladies will be welcome at the program which will commence immediately after supper has been served. It is thought that the program will be started by seven-thirty o'clock at the latest.

EVANSVILLE WOMAN PLACED IN A CAGE

MARY MARY SHAW FORCED IN ANIMAL CAGE AFTER REFUSING TO PARTICIPATE IN CELEBRATION.

Several Prominent Evansville Men Forced to Kiss Old Glory During Celebration.

Mrs. Mary Shaw aged seventy-three crowd of celebrators at Evansville yesterday morning forced to enter a cage and paraded through the main streets of that city.

Mrs. Shaw it is alleged refused to pay her assessment to the "Your Share is Fair" campaign and her home was painted yellow last night. Several conflicting stories regarding the occurrence are in circulation, but it is claimed by many that while Mrs. Shaw is not of German descent, she refuses to assist the government.

The story as it was received at this office alleges that the group of men and women went to her home when the celebration started Monday morning and asked her to come down town and participate in the celebration. She refused and on the other hand claims that they would not tell her what they wanted.

The crowd then went to the home of the late Col. Hall and secured a large animal cage. They proceeded to the house of Mrs. Shaw again and found her awaiting them armed with a shotgun. In less than a minute Orrin Bishop the fifteen year old son of Harry Bishop of this city managed to get the gun away from the woman.

She was then forced in the cage and taken down town where she was paraded and finally halted in front of a huge bon fire in front of the Commercial hotel. She was asked to come out of the cage and kiss or salute the flag but she refused.

The group pleaded with her, but to no avail and finally becoming exasperated they forced Mrs. Shaw out of the cage and endeavored to force her to kiss the flag but to no avail. She haughtily refused to honor Old Glory and despised every threat made she absolutely refused to do as requested.

After trying every manner possible to make her salute or kiss the flag, the angry crowd released her and she went home.

The crowd then turned their attention to several other alleged slackers consisting of Charles Davis of Magnolia, Carol Kutze, Mr. Goodnell, O. D. Chapin, Charles Jenkins and William Groh of Evansville and William Davenport of the town of Union.

These men were rounded up and forced to salute the flag and do a snake dance around the bon fire. After this was completed the crowd got in autos and drove to Brooklyn to Brooklyn to round up more alleged slackers but on their arrival in Brooklyn they were satisfied that the people they were after were loyal and had sworn allegiance to Old Glory.

After the rats of the summer sun have played their part, the salt is gathered. It is just raked into heaps, and these pyramids of salt are a striking feature of the landscape. The salt is now shoveled into carts and conveyed to various works on the seaboard, to undergo the process of refining.

Gathering the salt is trying work on account of the great heat and the dazzling reflection. Often it is necessary for the men to wear colored glasses to protect the eyes. After the loose salt has been collected from the surface a special kind of plow is run over it, when another harvest of the valuable material can be reaped.

The yield of salt from this strange lake amounts to several thousand tons a year, and it is among the finest obtainable. The lake is several square miles in area and is naturally a very valuable property.

News Notes from Movieland

BY DAISY DEAN

Just because Ella Hall was thought-ful enough to send me this perfectly charming picture of herself I have decided to use it and tell you all about her—that is not all I know about her, because she made me promise to keep some of her secrets where she first met her husband and what she said when he proposed and a few such minor things. And of course I promised.

You did not know she even had a husband. Well, she was going to keep big surprise until the end, but if you must know now, she has a perfectly good twenty-four-year-old husband and he is none other than Emory Johnson. Ella herself is twenty-one. She was born and educated in New York city and Emory was born and educated in San Francisco. No violating any rules or promises. She looks very much as if the two might have met first at University City. Don't you remember them both in "My Little Boy" and "Green Magic"?

Miss Hall has been on the stage or in pictures since she was a very little girl. Her first stage appearance was in the leading part of David Belasco's production of "The Grand Army Man." Later she understudied Mary Pickford in "The Warrens of Virginia." Her following engagement was with Isabel Irving in "The Girl Who Has Everything."

Then that most prolific creator of film stars, David Wark Griffith, took her under his wing and she remained with Biograph for two years. Since then her screen career has been varied but always successful. She played with Reliance, Rex, and Bison before joining Universal.

The very latest picture in which she has tossed her golden curls and winked her deep blue eyes is "Under the Top," Fred Stone's first Artercraft picture.

MRS. CASTLE IN ENGLAND
Mrs. Vernon Castle has reached England on her way to France after an eventful voyage across the Atlantic. She is to make an official war film on behalf of the Red Cross. Many of the scenes of the picture will be produced at the front.

"It is not a war story," Mrs. Castle writes. "It is history, which will be handed down through the ages as the spirit of Joan of Arc has inspired the hearts of the fighters of her land, and other lands. The Red Cross is the modern Joan, and the same brave enthusiasm and spirit of renunciation is to be found in those who labor for the cause."

Just before she sailed, Mrs. Castle was one of five well known women who posed for the prelude of "The Common Sense." Commodore J. Sturges recruiting picture, offered for American propaganda.

While in England, Mrs. Castle stopped for a time to visit her sister, whom she had not seen for years.

Terms Are Read

Washington.—President Wilson in addressing Congress today, said: "In these anxious times of rapid and stupendous change it will in some degree lighten my sense of responsibility to perform in person the duty of communicating to you some of the larger circumstances of the situation which it is necessary to deal."

"The German authorities who have, at the invitation of the Supreme War Council, been in communication with Marshal Foch have accepted and signed the terms of armistice which he was authorized and instructed to communicate to them. These terms are as follows:

"ONE.—Cessation of operations by land and in the air six hours after the signature of the armistice.
"TWO.—Immediate evacuation of invaded countries—Belgium, France, Alsace-Lorraine, Luxembourg, so ordered as to be completed within fourteen days from the signature of the armistice. German troops which have not left the above mentioned territories within the period fixed will become prisoners of war. Occupation by the allied and United States forces will keep peace with evacuation in these areas. All movements of evacuation and occupation will be regulated in accordance with a note annexed to the stated terms.
"THREE.—Repatriation beginning at once and to be completed within fourteen days of all inhabitants of the countries above mentioned, including hostiles and persons under trial or convicted.

"FOUR.—Surrender in good condition by the German armies of the following equipment: Five thousand guns (2,500 heavy), 30,000 machine guns, 500,000 rifles, 2,000 aeroplanes (fighters, bombers, seventy-three night bombing machines). The above to be delivered to the allies and United States troops in accordance with the detailed conditions laid down in the annexed note.

"FIVE.—Evacuation by the German armies of the countries on the left bank of the Rhine. These countries on the left bank of the Rhine shall be administered by the local authorities under control of the allied and United States armies of occupation. The occupation of these territories will be determined by allies and United States garrisons holding the principal crossings of the Rhine, Mayence, Coblenz, Cologne, together with bridgeheads at these points in thirty kilometers radius on the right bank and by garrisons similarly holding the strategic points of the region. A neutral zone shall be reserved on the right of the Rhine between the stream and a line drawn parallel to it forty kilometers from the east from the frontier of Holland to the parallel of Guewenheim and as far as practicable a distance of thirty kilometers from the east of the stream from this parallel upon the Swiss frontier. Evacuation by the enemy of the Rhine lands shall be so ordered as to be completed within a further period of eleven days after the signature of the armistice. All movements of evacuation and organization, will be regulated according to the note annexed.

"SIX.—In all territory evacuated by the enemy there shall be no evacuation of inhabitants; no damage or harm shall be done to the persons or property of the invaded states. No destruction of any kind to be committed. Military establishments of all kinds shall be delivered intact, as well as military stores of food, munitions, equipment not removed during the periods fixed for evacuation.

"Stores of food of all kinds for the civil population, cattle, etc., shall be left in situ. Industrial establishments shall not be impaired in any way and their personnel shall not be moved. Roads and means of communication of every kind, railroad, waterway, main roads, bridges, telegraphs, telephones, shall be in no manner impaired.

"SEVEN.—All civil and military personnel at present employed on their usual duties. Five thousand locomotives, 50,000 wagons and 10,000 motorlorries in good working order, with all necessary spare parts and fittings, shall be delivered to the allied powers within the period fixed for the evacuation of Belgium and Luxembourg. The railways of Alsace-Lorraine shall be handed over within the same period, together with all proper personnel and material. Further material necessary for the working of railways in the country on the left bank of the Rhine shall be left in situ. All stores of coal and material for the upkeep of permanent ways, signals and repair shops left entire in situ and kept in an efficient state by Germany during the whole period of armistice shall be restored to them. A note appended regulates the details of these measures.

"EIGHT.—The German command shall be responsible for revealing all mines or delay-acting fuses disposed on territory evacuated by the German troops and shall assist in their discovery and destruction. The German command shall also reveal all destructive measures that may have been taken (such as poisoning or polluting of springs, wells, etc.) under penalty of reprisals.

"NINE.—The right of requisition shall be exercised by the allied and the United States armies in all occupied territory. The upkeep of the troops occupying in the Rhine land (excluding Alsace-Lorraine) shall be charged to the German government.

"TEN.—An immediate repatriation without reciprocity, according to detailed conditions, which shall be fixed, of all allied and United States prisoners of war. The allied powers and the United States shall be able to dispose of these prisoners as they wish.

"ELEVEN.—Sick and wounded who cannot be removed from evacuated territory will be cared for by German personnel, who will be left on the spot with the medical material required.

"TWELVE.—All German troops at present in any territory which before the war belonged to Russia, Roumania or Turkey shall withdraw within the period of Germany as they existed on Aug. 1, 1914.

"THIRTEEN.—Evacuation by German troops to begin at once and all German instructors, prisoners and civilian as well as military agents now on the territory of Russia (as defined before 1914) to be recalled.

"FOURTEEN.—German troops to cease at once all requisitions and seizures and any other undertakings with a view to obtaining supplies intended for Germany in Roumania and Russia (as defined on Aug. 1, 1914).

"FIFTEEN.—Abandonment of the treaties of Bucharest and Brest-Litovsk and of the supplementary treaties.

"SIXTEEN.—The allies shall have free access to the territories evacuated by the Germans on their eastern frontier either through Danzig or by the Vistula river to convey supplies to the populations of those territories or for any other purpose.

"SEVENTEEN.—Unconditional capitulation of all German forces operating in East Africa within one month.

"EIGHTEEN.—Repatriation without reciprocity within a maximum period of one month, in accordance with detailed conditions hereafter to be fixed, of all civilians interned or deported who may be citizens of other allied or associated states than those mentioned in Clause 3, Paragraph 10, with the reservation that any future claims and demands of the allies and the United States of America remain unaffected.

"NINETEEN.—The following financial conditions are required: Reparation for damage done. While such armistice lasts no public securities will be removed by the enemy which can serve as a pledge to the allies for the recovery or repatriation for war losses. Immediate restitution of the cash deposit in the National Bank of Belgium and in general immediate return of all documents, specie, stocks, shares paper money, together with the plant for the issue thereof, touching public or private interests in the invaded countries. Restitution of the Russian and Roumanian gold yielded to Germany or taken by that power. This gold to be delivered in trust to the allies until the signature of peace.

"TWENTY.—Immediate cessation of all hostilities of sea and definite information to be given as to the location and movements of all German ships. Notification to be given to neutrals that freedom of navigation in all waters is guaranteed. No naval and mercantile mines of the allies and associated powers, all questions of neutrality being waived.

"TWENTY-ONE.—All mercantile marine prisoners of war of the allied and associated powers in German hands to be returned without reciprocity.

"TWENTY-TWO.—Surrender to the allies and the United States of America of 100 German submarines, including all submarine cruisers and mine-laying submarines, with the complete armament and equipment in ports which will be specified by the allies and the United States of America. All other submarines to be paid off and completely disarmed and placed under the supervision of the allied powers and the United States of America.

"TWENTY-THREE.—The following German surface warships which shall be designated by the allies and the United States of America shall be placed under the surveillance of the allies and the United States of America, only caretakers being left on board: Six battle cruisers, ten battleships, eight light cruisers, including two mine layers, fifty destroyers of the most modern type. All other surface warships, including river craft, are to be concentrated in German naval bases to be designated by the allies and the United States of America, and are to be paid off and completely disarmed and placed under the supervision of the allies and the United States of America. All vessels of the auxiliary fleet, trawlers, motor vessels, etc., are to be disarmed.

"TWENTY-FOUR.—The allies and the United States of America shall have the right to sweep up all mine fields and obstructions placed by Germany outside German territorial waters, and the positions of these are to be indicated.

"TWENTY-FIVE.—Freedom of access to and from the Baltic to be given to the naval and mercantile marines of the allied and associated powers. To secure this, the allies and the United States of America shall be empowered to occupy all German ports, German fortifications, batteries and other works of all kinds in all the entrances from the Cattog into the Baltic and to sweep up all mines and obstructions within and without German territorial waters without any restriction of neutrality being raised, and the positions of all such mines and obstructions are to be indicated.

"TWENTY-SIX.—The existing block conditions set up by the allied and associated powers are to remain unchanged and all German merchant ships found at sea are to remain liable to capture.

"TWENTY-SEVEN.—All naval aircraft are to be concentrated and immobilized in German bases to be specified by the allies and the United States of America.

"TWENTY-EIGHT.—In evacuating the Belgian coast and ports Germany shall abandon all merchant ships, tugs, lighters, cranes and all other parts of materials, all materials for inland navigation, all air craft and all materials and stores, all arms and armaments and all stores and apparatus of all kinds.

"TWENTY-NINE.—All Black Sea ports are to be evacuated by Germany; all Russian war vessels of all descriptions seized by Germany in the Black Sea are to be handed over to the allies and the United States of America. All neutral merchant vessels seized are to be released and all warlike and other materials of all kinds seized in those ports are to be returned and German materials as specified in Clause 28 are to be abandoned.

"THIRTY.—All merchant vessels in German hands belonging to the allied and associated powers are to be restored in ports to be specified by the allies and the United States of America, without reciprocity.

"THIRTY-ONE.—No destruction of ships or of materials to be permitted before evacuation, surrender or restoration.

"THIRTY-TWO.—The German government shall formally notify the neutral governments of the world and

ETERNAL IS BOSS OF TWO YEAR-OLDS. BEAT BILLY KELLY

(By International News)
New York, Nov. 7.—Eternal is the boss of the two-year-olds for 1918. The son of Sweep-Hazel Burke established his right to the title at Laurel, Md., when he met and defeated Billy Kelly, the crack gelding owned by Commander J. K. L. Ross, in a special match race which proved to be one of the best ever run on an Eastern track.
Following his victory Eternal was retired for the season, and his owner, James W. McCalland, announced that he will not carry colors again before next spring, when he is to be entered in Kentucky events.
Eternal's victory was a big surprise to turf followers. The Ross horse was favored by a huge majority and on his previous performances it appeared that the railbirds had the dope right on him, but Billy Kelly simply met his master over the six furlong route and thought Eternal was by a scant neck, his victory was decisive, because the race was well run—a contest every foot of the way.
Only Schuylinger polited the McCalland pug to his championship, and it may be said that his generosity over Sander, who had a leg over Billy Kelly, played its part in defeating the Ross gelding. Yet a race is a race, and a foot is just as much a part of it as a nail.
These two colts may meet again next year, but the fact that Billy Kelly will not be eligible for the season on account of being a gelding, the followers of Billy Kelly contend

SUFFERED TEN YEARS FROM INDIGESTION

Trouble Gave, Appetite Strong, and Eats Anything Without Distress.

"I had a case of catarrh and indigestion of ten years standing. I had been treated by the best medical men in Michigan. When I commenced taking Milks Emulsion, I was in bed. I improved so fast that I kept the neighbors wondering. I am now up and working every day. My cough is gone. My appetite is great and I can eat anything without hurting me."
—H. D. Lavoie, Rockford, Mich.

Indigestion is seldom cured by "holing" the stomach digest food. Digestive, like phlegm pills, usually make slaves of the stomach and bowels.

Milks Emulsion is a pleasant, nutritive food and a corrective medicine. It restores healthy natural bowel action, doing away with all need of pills and physics. It promotes appetite and quickly puts the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food. As a bulidizer of flesh and strength, Milks Emulsion is strongly recommended to run-down nervous people, and it has produced amazing results in many cases of tuberculosis of the lungs. Chronic stomach trouble and constipation are promptly relieved—usually in one day.

This is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon. Like ice cream. A truly wonderful medicine for weak, sickly children.
No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try Milks Emulsion under this guarantee: "Take six bottles home with you, use it according to directions and if not satisfied with the results, your money will be promptly refunded. Price, 75c and $1.20 per bottle. The Milks Emulsion Co., 200 North Third St., St. Paul, Minn. Sold and guaranteed by J. B. Baker.

NEW PRESIDENT TO BE NAMED FOR LEAGUE

(By International News)
New York, Nov. 12.—One of the features of the reconstruction of major league baseball will be the election of a new National League President.

The "Mother League" has worried along without an "official" president since the resignation of John K. Tener last summer. John A. Heydier, secretary of the league, has been the acting president and he is thoroughly conversant with the duties of the position, as he was formerly the league's president.

Whether the club owners will decide to elect Mr. Heydier, with supervision of the duties of the secretaryship is a question. Heydier himself might not relish the idea of taking over the combined duties of the two offices, even with capable assistance.

Meanwhile rumors and counter-rumors have been flying around in the baseball zone. One of these rumors connected with the name of a Louisville man with the candidacy, but little attention was paid to it.

Several other candidates or possible candidates have been mentioned. The very latest man to be mentioned for the place is Branch Rickey, the energetic and hustling president of the St. Louis Cardinals.

Branch Rickey is a wide-awake business man; a keen baseball man in every respect and a stickler for discipline and absolutely fair dealing. He would be the right man for the National League presidency in the opinion of many critics, and there is a chance that he may be offered the place. Mr. Rickey is said to have the backing of five clubs—Boston, New

FOOTBALL IN VOGUE IN PORTO RICO

(By Associated Press.)
New York, Nov. 12.—Football, not soccer, but the "man-to-man" intercollegiate type, has been started in Porto Rico and the soldiers are taking to it like ducks to water, despite heat and sandy playing field, that elsewhere would be considered too heavy for fast team work.

The First Battalion of the 374th Regiment started the football craze late in September by challenging the rest of the regiment. Neither side scored but two broken noses were reported among the casualties. This was the first blood drawn by the warriors and it added such zest to the life

MORRIS MILLER

Pat Flaherty, the famous old Pirate southpaw, has enlisted in the tank corps and is getting some instruction at Camp Polk in "treating 'em rough" before he is sent across the ocean.

Flaherty has not been connected with major league baseball as a player for a number of years, but in his time he was one of the best known athletes in the country. Ralph Davies, Pittsburgh scribe, gives some interesting dope on him. Pat was one of the players who went to Pittsburgh in the consolidation which resulted directly in giving the Pirates three successive National league championships. The consolidation resulted from the dropping of twelve to eight clubs by the dropping of Louisville, Cleveland, Baltimore and Washington.

Pittsburgh secured fourteen players from Louisville. In addition to Flaherty those who came were Fred Clarke, Hans Wagner, Rube Waddell, Elton Cunningham, Walter Woods, Tom Messitt, Tommy Leach, Mike Kelley and Charley Doyle.

These men and the originally Pittsburgh players enabled the Pirates to finish second in 1900, and then followed a great period of prosperity, during which the team landed the pennant in 1901, 1902 and 1903.

The fighters who represent the Great Lakes naval training station in the allied service boxing tourney in London will travel in style, writes J. J. Delaney in the Great Lakes Bulletin. He says:

The five Great Lakes fighters who will represent the station in the King's trophy tournament in London, Dec. 11-12, will not travel like second-hand goods with swingers. No, sir, each of them will be accompanied by a trainer, who will take care of his own man exclusively, will see to it that he does his training each day, that his man arm of the variety best suited to a fighter training for a championship scrap, and that he is kept in the best possible physical condition all the time.

The orders were received by Commander John B. Kaufman, medical corps, athletic officer, recently, from the bureau of navigation.

Commander Kaufman, knowing that each of the boys has had his own caretaker while boxing on the station, kindly allowed each of the battlers to choose the man they wanted to take the trip. So the hard working trainers, who have been doing lots of work, with no glory at all, will get some reward for their faithfulness.

Just when the boxers and trainers will shove off has not been decided, but they have been told to hold themselves in readiness to move in forty-eight hours.

While it has been known just what fighters were to leave, the list was announced definitely recently as follows: Richie Mitchell, Pat Moore, Cal Delaney, Dennis O'Keefe and Jack Heinen.

Lieutenant Francis, May Simonds, United States air service, an ex-football star, reported missing about six weeks ago, is safe after a remarkable experience, according to his parents. Not fully recovered from illness, he started on a flying trip with other machines over German territory. At the beginning of an action at high altitude he lost consciousness and his machine dived toward the earth.

His companions, continuing the fight, gave him up for lost, but Simonds recovered consciousness and managed to turn the nose of the machine up and break the force of his fall. He was knocked unconscious, but came to an allied hospital far from his own sector. He has now recovered and reported for duty again.

Lieutenant Simonds was graduated from Columbia in 1916, after being captain of the football team and a member of the variety eight in his junior year.

Of the American league's 144 soldiers and sailors, 83 are known to be in the army and 41 in the navy. The Philadelphia club in submitting its list of 26 did not specify how many were in each branch of the service, but stated that ten of them were known to be overseas. Summarized, the lists of men in uniform by clubs follows:

Club	Total Army	Navy
Detroit	25	1
Boston	20	11
Philadelphia	20	1
Chicago	19	12
Cleveland	19	15
New York	14	13
Washington	14	10
St. Louis	13	10
